Plenty more room at the tournament

2011 Fischer Random tournament Final week

After 8 rounds, we can declare a winner of the 2011 Fischer_Random tournament held at the Club on Fridays.

On 7.5/8, the clear winner was Robert Bartnik (rating 1910). Congratulations to Robert.

The Fischer_Random was a keenly contested competition with excellent performances by Bill Kerr (classic rating 1878), and by Gus D'Onofrio.

It was interesting to note we first tried Fischer_Random at the Club in 1999 and that contest was well attended and easily won by David Flude. Fludey is still going strong but could only manage 4/8 in 2011. Another point of interest is that Yi Liu participated in some rounds (he was in Melbourne for the Australian Junior Titles), but found the going hard here against the strong F_R participants. Currently Yiu is leading the Qld Australia Day week-ender

Box Hill Chess Club (BHCC) and Canterbury Junior Chess Club (CJCC) are proud to present

CHESS OPEN DAY Sunday 20 February 1:30 to 5:30

Come along with your family and friends and enjoy a wide range of free hands-on activities with current Australian champions!

Play chess with a champion

Get some free chess coaching

Watch a digital chess board demonstration

Find out how chess can improve your mental agility and academic success

Meet some of our Sunday coaches on the day

Bobby Cheng

Although only 13 years old, Bobby is a respected FIDE Chess Master who claimed the World Under 12 Chess Championship in 2009. He is also the 2011 Australian Junior Chess Champion and has won the prestigious Arlauskas medal for the second consecutive year. The club is fortunate to have Bobby's talent as one of the junior coaches on Sundays.

Laurence Matheson

At only 15, Laurence Matheson is the current Victorian Junior Chess Champion (Under 18) and an active member of the chess club committee. His talents extend beyond chess and he is already enrolled at University Melbourne in Science.

Sally Yu

Sally won her Australian Girls Junior Chess Championship title in 2009. She sets a fine example as an all round achiever in her study, sports and chess. She has been a member of our coaching panel for 2 years and manages to still find time to coach some of the juniors on Sundays.

The 2011 JETS training squad

THE JETS training squad has been allocated to our venue during the July school holidays. The preliminary dates are July 5 to July 10 inclusive. The last time the squad met [then called the Ergas training squad] at the club was in 2008 when these Victorians were included

Dalton, Samuel	1979
Cheng, Bobby	1958
Schön, Eugene	1960
Matheson, Laurence	1686
Antolis, Cedric	1800
Yu, Derek	1886
Chan, Michael	1616

Tan, Justin	1683
Yu, Sally	1609
Tang, Jason	1647
Ang, Stephanie	992
Sannidhanam, Anurag	1532
Wallmuller, Peter	657

Most of these players are still around and have shown big rating improvements particularly Bobby and Justin who are now rated 2207 and 2067 respectively. Actually Laurence has not done so bad either, he is now 2043 But what happened to Anurag and Stephanie.

Some more Box Hill, Canterbury Junior members at the Australian Junior acknowledged here

Thomas Feng equal third ahead of 6 higher rated players including IM James Morris whom he beat in their individual game

2011 Victorian Junior Championships

The Canterbury junior Chess Club has applied to Chess Victoria to hold the Victorian Junior Championships at our venue on the following dates

Under 12 under 10 and under 8 boys and girls

Saturday July 2 and Sunday July 3

Under18 under 16 and under 14 boys and girls

Tuesday July12 to Friday July15 inclusive.

It is a bit early to start making predictions or canvas candidates suffice to say last year's champion Laurence Matheson is eligible for a few years yet

Carl Loucas A novice in national competition Excellent score of 5.5 in under 8 open
