I thought for a little while we were not going to get any entrants at all but due to good support from president Brian Jones Greg Canfell in Sydney and CV president Leonid Sandler the field is coming together nicely with 24 entrants with little over a week to go. Here is the list so far

This is the first bite of the cherry for the Box Hill Chess Club dipping its toe in the water with an international tournament. [wow 2 clichés in one sentence]

2011 Victorian Reserves

The field for the 2011 Victorian Championship reserves has now been decided as a 10 player round robin tournament. This is the field

1. Bashar, Omar Khaled	OS	1959
2. Anton, Sarah	VIC	1696
3. Beattie, Roger	VIC	1687
4. Hacche, David	VIC	2012
5. Phuma, Oprofile	OS
6. Beckman, John	VIC	1618
7. Garner, David J	OS	2026
8. Stead, Kerry	VIC	1989
9. Dizdarevic, M	VIC	1948
10. Lekkas, Frank	VIC	1854

Unfortunately no Box Hill players in this somewhat modest field. The games for this tournament started last night at the club. Too much competition for the DGT boards to show any of the games. You will find regular updates on both the championship and the reserves on the CV website

FIDE arbiters course

There have been 16 entrants so far in our FIDE arbiters seminar although not all entrants are confirmed it looks like a good turn out. The course is run in parallel to the senior zonal and is organised by international arbiter Gary Bekker with the help of Shaun Press and Charles Zworestine

John Kable is ill

Life member John Kable was taken to hospital last week with a serious heart attack and after open heart surgery unblocking 3 blocked arteries is now recovering well at St Vincent private. No visitors though until next week

Canterbury Summer Swiss

There has been some toing and froing since a combined preferred format was proposed by the presidents of the Melbourne and Box Hill Chess clubs. This proposal was approved by the Box Hill Chess club committee but did not meet the seal by the MCC committee. Therefore it was decided that each club would go its own way. This is what our Summer Swiss will look like.

This will be the last Sunday tournament I can attend for awhile anyway. It is good to see Box Hill members attending the arbiters course who will then be versed in the rules and able to take over. Remember Kind discretion is the motto

Prahran Chess club advertisement

We are now taking enrolments for Term 3. The Chess Club meets on Saturdays, 1-2.30pm from July 30 until September 17. Brochures are available at Box Hill Chess Club or email george@zedchess.com.au.

We kicked off the new Prahran Saturday Chess Club in Term 2 with a chess tournament and many other fun and educational activities:

- Prepared for the Victorian Junior Championships
- Practiced recording games
- Learned some tricky tactics like Outposts and Interception
- Played in a Transfer Chess Tournament
- And had lots of fun!

Well done to our students who participated in the recent Victorian Junior Championships, particularly Jamie Fay who was one move away in his last game from becoming the Victorian Under 10 Champion!

A visit to the Hong Kong Chess Club

While overseas recently visiting the country of my birth, I stopped into the Hong Kong Chess Club and was warmly welcomed by committee members, Jackson & Mingo. Their club night is Monday 6.30 to 10.30 pm at the Queen Elizabeth Stadium, 18 Oi Kwan Road, Wanchai, on Hong Kong Island. Fortunately for me English is spoken at the club as the majority of the juniors are English educated. The club was holding its Summer Swiss tournament and the current leader has a connection with Australia, a Hong Kong student currently studying at Sydney University on term holidays. He also plays club chess at the North's Chess Club, Sydney. The numbers are much smaller than Box Hill with only 15 boards in their 5 round Summer Swiss Tournament. However, like most chess clubs, they rely on volunteers and within 5 minutes of the club room opening, tables, chess sets, clocks & score sheets are set up with the assistance of players & parents. Jackson and Mingo are the backbone of the Chess Club and are both FIDE instructors and currently coaching a number of the Hong Kong juniors. The website for the Hong Kong chess club is www.hkchess.org

2010 C.V. CHAMP PLAY-OFF

The 2010 Vic Championship play-off between Chris Wallis and Dusan Stojic was held at the Box Hill Chess Club and ended in disaster for club champion Chris Wallis who after drawing the first game lost the second one. This was after what I thought were winning positions in both games. We are hoping Michael Gluzman will provide us with analysis of both games in his column

THE 2011 BOX HILL MASTERS

Round 2 of the masters was played last night but due to late [too late] withdrawal from Savi and Tom Narenthran some games have been played out of sequence and some players have only played one game. Here are the standings

1-3	Raine, Marcus	2046	2000	1.5
	Martinez, Octavio		1780	1.5
	Zelesco, Karl	2013	2038	1.5
4-5	Chew Lee, Max	1600	1465	1
	Jordan, Bill	2275	2256	1
6	Flude, David	1790	1713	0.5
7-10	D'Onofrio, Gus		1566	0
	Fan, Enoch		1606	0
	Hayman, Adam	1672	1561	0
	Bartnik, Robert		1559	0

Players who have only played one game are Bartnik, Flude, Fan, and Jordan.

The game between Robert Bartnik and Bill Jordan would have been of great interest to those interested in the history of Australian Junior chess two former Australian Junior champions of the 70s Robert Australian junior champ in 1973 and Bill 1974. Robert returning to chess after a long lay-off and Bill a FIDE master having his first turn-out at our club. Great scheduling by tournament organiser David Flude

Unfortunately I have already prepared this week's article when I received an email from Chris Wallace asking to annotate his second game against Dusan Stojic from Victorian Championship play-off. Thank you Chris, it will be my pleasure to analyse it for the next week's issue. I spoke to Dusan and he told me that the game was very complicated and Chris could have won it with a rook sacrifice. I am looking forward to going through it!

The results for the world team championship:
 1. Armenia – 14 (22,5); 2. China – 13 (22,5); 3. Ukraine – 12 (19,5); 4. Russia – 10 (21); 5. Hungary – 10 (19,5); 6. USA – 10 (18,5); 7. Azerbaijan – 9 (19); 8. India – 7 (15,5); 9. Israel – 5 (13); 10. Egypt – 0 (9).
