This tournament is under valued by our regular members. It is certainly great fun to watch and with 2 rounds on the night one can get 2 for the price of one. It is good to have new players lining up and I for one hope they will continue in the open coming up Newcomer James Kwe is a source of fascination for the spectators James is 61/2 and can hardly see over the top of the table We wonder how anyone so small can think so clearly the above is a cross table after 2 rounds

 The good turn- out from term 2 continues in term 3 The list is impressive All we now have to do is to have them turn up all at once. This Sunday will be a little of a bottle neck With the arbiters seminar to start at 3 in the analysis room and the seniors zonal championship to start at 3.30

Obviously Olgerts and Shane have not yet played each other nor yet played number 3 and 4. Likely pairings for next week would be Lawson Bergmanis but I think Zhi Lin and Jimmy have already played each other. The You sisters are sticking close together.

THE 2011 OCEANIA SENIORS CHAMPIONSHIP AT CANTERBURY

This Friday at 2.30 PM we have the start of the Oceania senior championship at our club. When it was first offered to us we were reluctant to get involved as quite a bit of our interest lies with the promotion of our junior arm the Canterbury Junior chess club. However after some flattering words from Brian Jones the Oceania zone president we were persuaded that the tournament could be a success. So here it is 30 entrants in this first Australian event. The event and the Fide seminar held in conjunction with this are generously sponsored by the Asian Chess Federation whose logo follows here

And the list of players:

It is hard to pick winners with the variety of ages and the retained activity of some but not all of the players. However the winner of the ladies title will surely go to Vivian Smith from New Zealand

THE FIDE SEMINAR

This event held in conjunction with the Senior Oceania Championships also attracted sponsorship from the Asian Chess Federation and we were indeed lucky that we did as there has been no interest from our own beloved ACF. Well be that as it may it reinforces the principle in Australian Chess if you want to get anything done you have to do it yourself, at least in my case with the help of my friends I like to thank now the lecturers Gary Bekker Shaun Press and Charles Zworestine.

Zone president and FIDE observer Brian Jones and our own overworked committee members and above all our treasurer Trevor Stanning. It is not quite clear who will attend as some of our overseas friends are having visa problems To sum up there will be 4 BHCC representatives Peter Tsai Roger Croft, Oliver Lemmel, and Jack Hughes. There are definite entries from Amir and Sabin Karibasic and expressions of interest from Raj Ravic, Alana Chibnal, Jamie Kenmure, Kerry Stead, and Bill Collins. Session times and dates will be

Dates: From Friday 5.8.2011 to Monday 8.8.2011

Entry fees: $150 per candidate

Session

Times: Morning session- 9:30am to 1:30pm

Afternoon session: 2:30am to 6:30pm

Seminar Outline: Friday 5.8.2011

THE 2011 BOX HILL MASTERS

These are the standings after 3 rounds. Not all games have been played and therefore the standings don't convey all that much

1	Chew Lee, Max	1600	1465	3
2	Raine, Marcus	2046	2000	2.5
3	Jordan, Bill	2275	2256	2
4-5	Martinez, Octavio	1881	1780	1.5
	Zelesco, Karl	2013	2038	1.5
6	Fan, Enoch	1606	1
7	Flude, David	1790	1713	0.5
8-10	D'Onofrio, Gus	1566	0
	Hayman, Adam	1672	1561	0
	Bartnik, Robert	1559	0

Max is going well 3 games 3 points

Adam, Karl, Enoch, and Bill are one game behind. Robert is 2 games behind. Karl is getting the rough end of the pineapple. This is the second time he was left without an opponent David Flude had this to say about round 3 [in the third person]

This round featured some hard fought games. Bill Jordan outplayed Octavio Martinez in an ending where he had extra pawns for the exchange. Marcus Raine versus David Flude was a very hard fought game. David could have offered a knight sacrifice early in the game which would have lead to a draw by repetition of moves. However he tried to win and eventually blundered.

Two important lessons to learn: 1. When under attack – swap, especially queens. 2. When calculating look at least at a couple of alternative moves. Really good game, well played!
