Melbourne Cup weekender

In the just completed 5 day weekender at the Melbourne Chess Club, there were good results for Box Hill and Canterbury members. Bobby Cheng, newly crowned Victorian champion came second only bested by GM elect George

Xie who in an masterful display was a whole point clear of Bobby who inturn was another 1.5 points clear of the field. Pleasing to see also the rise and rise of Max Chew Lee who picked up ratings group 2 [u1600] prize on his own

Teams competition results

Ballarat v Box Hill 2	result 2—2	played October 23
Rob Loveband	1:0	Octavio Martinez
Patrick Cook	0.5:0.5	David Flude
Rob Bailey	0.5:0.5	Gus D'Onofrio
James Watson	0:1	Elliott Renzies

This result keeps Box Hill 2 in the hunt for a top podium finish but they will have to pull their finger out and win their last 2 games to be assured. Board 4 player Elliott Renzies announced his retirement from Box Hill activities with the gnashing of teeth by his fellow team members. He can no longer play in our tournaments and seeks his luck elsewhere. It is a pity as I always found him an interesting player to watch. This is Elliott the last time he played at the club in at the Oceania senior Championship

There are so many different styles in chess. Some chess players are happy to even sacrifice pawns just to get type of positions they like. In the following game White sacrifices a pawn but get a very active position and although they missed a nice combination during the game they eventually got a win anyway.
